Sponsorship Project

June 2013 to Nov 2013

AJF is registered welfare organization with its motto of love, peace and unity. As presented by its symbol. Its main aim is healthy family and child welfare. All its activities are oriented towards the same not only at urban level but semi urban and rural level also.

Primary education is the basic right and requirement for the growth of any individual in the citizen society. Akhandjyot foundation is looking for this need of socially and economically backward children and is conducting its regular programme on different education front.

We covered student of 1 to 7 standers and they take coaching from expert teacher. Under this programme the school going children are regularly given coaching to improve their academic standards. They are all involved in creative and cultural activities for self development.

Teachers teach them mathematic, Gujarati (Language) Science etc. English and general knowledge children also learn those subjects in which they are very poor. Teacher discusses with parents and their school teacher about the study and growth of children. Children who are not able to read and write, we totally focus on those children and try hard to teach them.

To make children aware about the importance of each festival and to provide an outlet to their hidden talents national festivals like Independence Day, Republic day, 2nd October Gandhi Jayanti are celebrated. Social and religious festivals like Navratri, Janmasthanmi, and Rakshabandhan are also celebrated. Competitions of patriotic songs debating's, drawing painting are also organized.

Children are taken to places like River front, Sanskar Kendra Akshrdham, Kankariya zoo etc. Picnic and tour give good exposure to the children. They are taken to these places either by bus or by train. For them to travel either by bus or train with friends is the most enjoyable experience.
