Christmas Party at Tara - Pune december 2011

Christmas Party Organized at TARA

Christmas is the festival of love and joy that brightens up our lives with happiness and hope... One such celebration of happiness and hope also took place at TARA centre on 17th of December for all children and staff residing there. The Christmas party that was organized for the children and by the children saw an active participation by kids. Mrs. Dipika Maharaj Singh, Mr. Shyam Mehendale and Mr. Arvind Herlekar and Mrs. Urmila Gatne were present to share the joy of festival with kids. TARA Children enacted a play on the birth of Jesus Christ in which Aarti played the role of Mother Mary, Aishwarya, Avni, Chaetrali, Kaartika and Payal played the role of shepherds' and Anuradha and Vijaya were angels in the play. The caretakers of St. Ursula convent danced on a welcome song for children and all the guests. Later in the party all children danced with Santa Claus on the Jingle Bell song with Joy. Also, Mr. Herlekar and Sister Rita delivered Christmas wishes and showered their blessings on children. In the party Charley Chaplin made everyone laugh with his evergreen mute comedy. It was a time for everyone to forget all their pains and past problems and enjoy the joy of present life.

The care takers of TARA actively took part on Dandia songs and a beautiful Christmas Carol was song by the students of St. Joseph School. It was an evening with loads of fun which had various games for everyone and the winners were felicitated by Dipika . The Christmas cake was a delightful treat for everyone. The party reminds us all the importance of togetherness and the magic that this unity and love creates in our surroundings.

We are very thankful to our sponsors and well wishers for spreading the joy with their good wishes and donations.
